"Vice and Saloon Culture in the Gold Rush Era in Sacramento" James Scott

James Scott is head archivist for Sacramento Public Library's Special Collections and Archives. He is a graduate of Marquette University and holds master's degrees in European history and library and information science. He is coordinator for the library's "Valley to Vietnam" oral history project and served on the American Library Association's programming team for the Ken Burns documentary "The Vietnam War" (2017). He is coauthor of World War I and the Sacramento Valley (2016) and World War II Sacramento (2018).

Saloons Program: One of the best ways to learn about the general tenor of Gold Rush Sacramento is through the prism of the saloon, a standard of the Old West and a central feature of 1840s and 50s Sacramento. Alcohol production, entertainment, gambling, and other saloon activities will be presented. Rare maps and photographs will be shown.

James has provided the following pages as handouts.

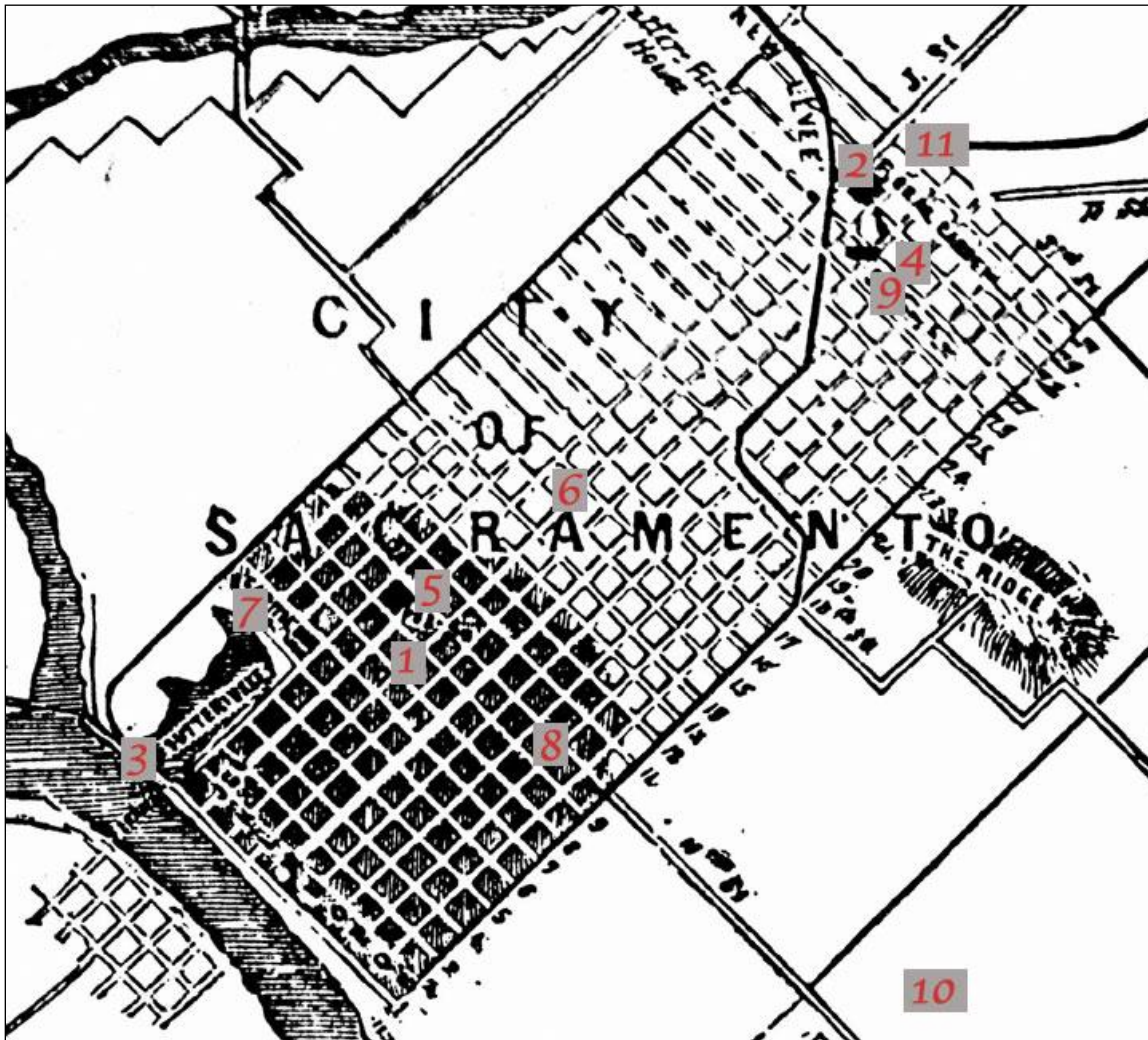

Please join us after the meeting for Coffee, Cookies, and Chat in the Kilaga Cafe.
