QUICK START GUIDE

The Lincoln Public Library offers two fantastic genealogy databases for you to use. These products are similar, but have key differences. Use this guide to decide which is the best fit for you, and then a link to the databases.

Access

Ancestry.com Library Edition can only be accessed in the library. You can access it from a library computer or your own device connected to the library wi-fi.

HeritageQuest can be accessed from anywhere with your library card number. In the library, you do not need your library card number.

Search

You can search all available record collections, some collections, or just one collection at a time. You can also search for record collections by location and keyword.

Each record collection must be searched individually.

Records

Includes over 8.9 billion US and international records from over 8,000 databases. Also includes read-only information from Ancestry message boards and user trees, plus research tools.

Includes over 5 billion US and international records from over 500 databases. Also includes research aids.

Export

You can print or export records via e-mail, but you cannot make trees.
